What are cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device when you visit the site. It enables the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as login, language, font size and other display preferences) over a period of time, so you don't have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to the site or browse from one page to another.

How do we use cookies?

We use the following cookies to track the way you navigate our websites:

Google Analytics:

Cookies set by Google analytics are used for web analytical purpose, but are not used to track individual users. For further information on how Google Analytics collects and uses information on our behalf and the right to use such cookies, please refer to the Google Analytics products and services privacy statement. If you object to your Personal Data being collected by Google Analytics, you may download and install the Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on.

Enquiry Forms

We use a plugin called Gravity Forms to power any forms seen on our site. Data captured through Gravity Forms will be used to contact you in order to respond to your enquiry. A backup of your data will also be stored in the database of our website, but will be automatically deleted after 30 days. Only authorised individuals will be able to access your data, and it will not be disclosed to third parties. If you would like your data to be removed in advance of 30 days, please email dataprivacy@coralproducts.com.
